

Q Awards

Q | What?

A Jury will evaluate the Q stories submitted and attribute two types of prizes: one global prize for the best Q story and one prize in each country for the best local Q story.

1 Global prize

The winner will be a Ceva invitee* for the WBC 2021, where Ceva will be Premium sponsor

1 Prize per country

The winner of each country will be a Ceva invitee* for the country national buiatric conference

*Ceva will take responsibility for all costs and logistic with flights and accommodations of our invitee.

Q | How?

To participate you need to share your Q story with us. Q stories should reflect your experience/field work with Q Fever on these general topics:

- Prevalence of the disease on your farms or country
- The negative impact of the disease on your farms
- The results of vaccination on the control of Q Fever

In Step 2, Ceva provides a specific template to help you write it down easily. Once you have it ready you just need to submit it in Step 3.

Q | When?

Deadline to submit your Q story is December 31th, 2020. After that the jury will gather to evaluate the Q stories received and a decision will be taken on March 31th, and communicated to the country Ceva team.
